"Kerri Efendi's custom invitation design appealed to me because I wanted something that reflected our personalities—not something you could get from any website. I wanted to incorporate hydrangeas, and she found a beautiful way to use them in our invitations and RSVP cards. We received so many compliments."

—Amanda De Rosa, married on July 25, 2009, at a private residence in Bellingham

"All About Weddings has everything you need. They're used to brides like me who were shell-shocked and overwhelmed. They gave me an idea of timeline and came up with original ideas. They have an amazing selection of invitations, from do-it-yourself paper to choose-from-a-book styles." —Erika Tedin, married on Oct. 3, 2009, at Mountain River Lodge in Easton

By providing just the digital images from your wedding, our new GREEN package minimizes the use of toxic chemicals and paper... so you can love the earth as much as you love each other.
